COMMITTEE FOR GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL AS PER AICTE NORM

As per AICTE guidelines, a Grievance Redressal Committee is constituted in the institution to address and redress grievances of faculty members and students in a fair, transparent, and time-bound manner. The committee aims to ensure a healthy academic and professional environment by resolving issues related to academic, administrative, and service matters.

Faculty members and students having grievances related to academic activities, evaluation, workload, service conditions, facilities, discrimination, or any other institutional matters may approach the committee in writing for redressal. The committee maintains confidentiality and follows due process while examining grievances.

Members of the Grievance Redressal committee as per AICTE NORM:
